

Dressage Ride-a-Test and Scribe Clinic with Donna Meyer (USEF "r" Judge)

When: Saturday, March 9, 2019

Registration Deadline: Monday, March 4, 2019

Where: Topsider Farm, 6809 Stousland Road, College Station, TX 77845

What: Here is your opportunity to practice the NEW 2019 tests and learn how to improve your scores at a competition! Ride a test of choice, talk with the judge, then ride the test again. Scores and comments will be given.

BACH is also offering a scribe clinic with Donna Meyer, a USEF "r" and USEF Western Dressage "R" judge in conjunction with the ride-a-test for anyone who would like to learn how to scribe or would like a refresher! The clinic will help participants understand the responsibilities of the scribe and offer helpful hints on how to stay organized during a show.

We will cover the guidelines for scribes including: scores, common abbreviations, errors, and other general advice. The discussion will be followed by a practice test and Q&A. Participants will also have the opportunity to practice throughout the ride-a-test schedule! Come and learn what the judge is looking for: what earns high scores, what can lower your score, and hear a judge's perspective on how each movement should be ridden.

If you would like to volunteer at local shows, this is great opportunity to gain the knowledge, confidence, and practice to be ready!

Ride Times & Arenas: Rides will be scheduled every 45 minutes. Ride times will be available Wednesday before the clinic on the BACH website, bachdressage.org.

Small Arena (20x40m): Intro, Western and Eventing Tests.

Large Arena (20x60m): All other dressage tests.

Cost per Test Ride: $45 Bach Members
