

Bar BQ Social at On-the-Bit-Farm

September 19, 2024

Donna Meyer shared her win of a “Party Pac” from CJ’s BarBQ through KBTX Thursday night at her home at On-the-Bit Farm with the club. It was a great chance for members to socialize, meet others and talk about where BACH will be headed in the coming year. There was lots of brainstorming. It turns out that everyone has a skill that the club can utilize to help BACH prosper. If everyone does something, no one has to bear an onerous burden. And some of our older members have “corporate memory” which is invaluable. Several members stepped up to volunteer for the board next year which is coming up December 1. It is so exciting to have some new blood

